2007

Erin McLean and Cheyenne Allen both children of Newcastle Middle school staff members were selected for November 2007 honor.

Erin McLean is the senior daughter of Crandell and Lisa McLean and the younger sister to Hayley and Megan. She attends Newcastle United Methodist Church where she is active in its youth group.

McLean maintains a 4.0 GPA and is involved in many school activities including SADD, Creative Writing Club, Drama Club and choir. She is also the Senior Class Vice President, STUCO Representative for the National Honors Society and the Parliamentarian for the Science Club.

She has started all four years for the Lady Racer Fast pitch softball team and was recently named to All-State.

In addition to her many school activities; she also plays piano and is involved in a theatre program, ACTS Academy, in Okla. City where she performs in improv and sketch comedy shows.

Cheyenne Allen, also a senior, is the son of Larry and Darla Allen. He serves as the STUCO President, the Newcastle FFA Chapter President and the National Honors Society Reporter.

Allen is a member of SADD, Science Club, and Yearbook. He attends the First Baptist Church of Newcastle.

He was chosen as one of five juniors in the state to represent Class Seven of Youth Leadership Oklahoma. Allen also serves on the board of directors for the Okla. Junior Cattlemen's and is State reporter for the Okla. Chianina Association, as well as, the State Advisory Board for the American Farmers and Ranchers.

He enjoys showing cattle, participating on the shooting team and public speaking.
